

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE.

URING the compilation of this Register the Editor has frequently been asked the question, "Where do you get the names from?" As this question may occur to others, a few words as to the authorities consulted and sources of information may be interesting.

In the keeping of the Headmaster of Repton School there is an old Register book containing a list of names from 1675 to 1882. These names have been copied verbatim et literatim. Unfortunately, as will be seen, there are many breaks in the list.

These breaks have been filled up, to a certain extent, by names found in many ways.

(1) An article called "Minute Book of the Wirksworth Classis," published in the "Journal of the Derbyshire Archaeological and Natural History Society," Vol. II., 1880, by Dr. J. Charles Cox (O.R.), supplied information about many in the seventeenth century.

(2) The Charter, granted by James I., named "the first Foure poore schollars."

(3) A list of witnesses in a chancery suit between the Master of Repton School, etc., and Gilbert Thacker and others, named eleven O.R.'s, who appeared as witnesses at the trial.

(4) Dr. Peile (O.R.), Master of Christ's College, and Dr. Sandys, Fellow of St. John's College, and Public Orator, Cambridge, have, most kindly, made extracts from their College Registers of Reptonians who were members of their colleges.

(5) School lists, printed during the Headmastership of Mr. Macaulay (1832-40) (presented to the School by H. Temple Pears, O.R.), supplemented by information obtained from and by the Right Hon. George Denman and Canon Macaulay, who were at School during that period, when no Register was kept.

(6) Names cut or written on the school walls, etc.

(7) University Honours, Degrees, Addresses, in "Alumni Oxonienses" (Foster), "Graduati Cantabrigienses" (Crockford).

Many O.R.'s and others have supplied much valuable information, without which the Register would have been merely a list of names and dates.

Notwithstanding constant revisions, causing much extra labour on the printers, many errors of omission and commission will be found. The Editor will be much obliged if corrections and additions be sent to him, so that a future edition may be still more valuable and correct.

In addition to those mentioned above, the Editor begs to return his most grateful thanks to the Headmaster, the Rev. G. P. Clucas, H. H. Bemrose, Esq., W. H. Francis, Esq. (O.R.), J. Tilley, Esq., Author of "The Old Halls, Manors, and Families of Derbyshire;" and many others, who, by their kind advice and assistance, have helped him in his arduous but exceedingly pleasant task.

HISTORICAL INTRODUCTION.

REPTON SCHOOL was founded by Sir John Port, of Etwall, in the County of Derby, Knight. He was the son of Sir John Port, Knt., one of the Justices of the King's Bench in the reign of King Henry VIII., who, after the dissolution of the monasteries, conferred the manor, together with the Rectory and advowson of the Vicarage of Etwall, upon Sir John Port; these passed on to his son John, created a Knight of the Bath at the coronation of King Edward VI., 1547. Sir John, by will dated the 9th of March, 1556, directed that he should be buried "as neare as conveniently may be, on the right hand the Tombe that my father made betwixt the chauncell and my Chappell above the body of the parish church in Etwall," and "that a comely and handsome Tomb of pure Marble after the best plain sort be made and erected up by my Executors within six monthes after my decease. In and upon which Tomb I will be sett and fixed graven in brasse after the best fashion all such armes as I and my Wifes are entituled to give with a remembrance of mine and their Names, and of the tyme of my departure from this Transitory life with other such scriptures as by my Executors shall be thought most decent and convenient per me supradictum Johannem Porte."

"Alsoe that thirteen of the poorest and Impotent Persons as well men as women in Dauburie and Lees Hilton and Repton shall have by the hands of my Executors or their Assignes every Fryday at the Church of Etwall after the High Masse is said dureing three years to pray for my father and mother me and my Wifes and Children and all Christian souls a penny a peece."

"Alsoe six of the poorest of Etwall Parish shall have weeklie for ever Twenty pence a peece over and besides such lodging as I or my Executors shall provide for them in an Alms-House which God willing shall be builded in or near to the Church yard at Etwall."

"Alsoe In like manner I will give & devise to Sr Thomas Gifford Knight and my nephew Richard Harpur Esq Thomas Brewster Vicar of Etwall, John Harker and Simon Starkey and to their heirs all my Lands Tenements & Hereditaments in Mosley Abraham Brockhurst within the County of Lancaster upon condition that they shall finde or cause to be found a Priest well learned and graduate and of honest and Virtuous Conversation Freely to keep a grammar School in Etwall or Repton from time to time for ever. And alsoe to say Masse or minister Divine service at the Alter in my Chappell there or in Repton Church at such Alter as my Executors shall appoint thrice every week. And I will there be alsoe an Usher associate to & with the said Master to Keepe y<sup>e</sup> school. And for their travell in such behalf I will that the School M<sup>r</sup> have yearly Twenty pounds and the Usher Tenn pounds. And I will that the schollars of the said school every morninge at their comeing to the said Schoole, & also at the afternoon at and upon the departure from the schoole do pray for my Parents soules, my soule, the soule of Elizabeth Porte my late wife, the souls of Walter Porte and Thomas Porte my children and the souls of my Brethren and sisters, and the souls of all them that I stand most bound to pray for as more plainly shall appear in a schedule, & all Christians souls, which Schoole Master at the first tyme I will Sr William Perryn Batcheler of Divinity late my Chaplain to be (if he be living) and so will take upon him, or else such other well learned virtuous man as myne Executors shall appoint &c., per me supra-dictum Johannem Porte."

"Alsoe with the residue of the profitts of the said Stock and Farme that my Executors builde of stone and brick a substantial Schoole House together with convenient Chambers and Lodgings for the Schoole Master & Usher in the place and precinct of y<sup>e</sup> North side of the Church at Etwall, or at Repton; and this done I will without delay my Executors to establish by the King & Queen's Highness Licence and other lawfull assureances to the Schole for ever."

"And by like circumstance to admortise to the use thereof the said Lands and Tenements in Mosely Abraham and Brockhurst aforesaid, The Royaltie and Mannor whereof, and the putting in of the said Schoole Master from time to time and Usher I will my Issue male and his heirs to have for ever And if I have no Issue male then my Executors for their time and after their decease my heires or such other as I shall appoint by my deed Indented and subscribed with my hand per me Johannem Port."

"In witness whereof to these presents I have put my seale the day and year above written per me supradictum Johannem Porte. Hæc finita sunt in præsentia mei præfati Richardi Harpur, per testimonium mei Johannis Harker, per testimonium mei Simonis Starkey, per testimonium mei Lawrencii Wright."

The directions of Sir John Port were carried out by his executors. Built against the south wall of the chancel in Etwall Church is a "comely and handsome tomb of pure marble." "Sett and fixed, graven in brasse," are portraits of Sir John, his two wives, and children, two boys and three girls kneeling at the back of their mother, Lady Elizabeth Port.

Above the tomb, on a shield, the arms of Port, surmounted by their crest. On the tomb, at the top corners are shields, Port impaling quarterly Gifford and Montgomery, and Port impaling quarterly of the two Fitzherbert coats. Below, set in three quatrefoils, are shields : (1) of Port, (2) Port impaling quarterly Gifford and Montgomery, (3) Quarterly of four, Stanhope, Malovale, Longvillers, and Lexington, and impaling Porte and Montgomery.

On the tomb is the following inscription :—

"Under thys tombe lyeth buried the Boodye of Syr John Porte knyght sonne & beyre unto Syr
John Porte, one of the Justyces of ye Kyngs Benche at Westmynst. Elsebeth and Dorothe Wyves to the same S<sup>r</sup> John Porte the sonne which sonne dyed the syrt day of June Anno Dni 1557."

Sir John was married twice, first to Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Thomas Gifford, of Chillington, in the County of Stafford, secondly to Dorothy, daughter of Anthony Fitzherbert. By his first wife he had five children, two boys, Walter and Thomas, both of whom died young, and three daughters, Elizabeth, Dorothy, and Margaret.

Elizabeth married Sir Thomas Gerard, of Bryn, co. Lancaster; Dorothy married George Hastings, Earl of Huntingdon; Margaret married Sir Thomas Stanhope, of Shelford, co. Nottingham, from whom the present hereditary Governors of Repton School, Lord Gerard, the Earl of Loudoun, and the Earl of Carnarvon, trace their descent.

On the north side of the Church at Etwall was built "an Alms-House for six of the poorest of Etwall Parish." This almshouse fell into decay, so in 1681 the present hospital was erected. It consists of sixteen sets of apartments, built on three sides of a square; the fourth side is open to, and bounded by the churchyard wall.

The following inscription is fixed in the centre of the north side :—

Will left an Estate for the Erection and Endowment of a Free Schole at Repton and an Hospital in this place, departed this Life June VI. MDLVII. the which Foundations haueing been accordingly established, this Hospitall through length of time falling to decay, was rebuilt, the Sallary's increased, the Alms Men augmented from VI to XII. The Right Honourable Theophilus Earle of Huntingdon, the Right Honourable Philip Earle of Chesterfield, and S<sup>r</sup> William Gerrard, Baronet, Heires Generall to the Founder, being Governors. MDCLXXXI."

Sir John Port's executors established the School at Repton rather than at Etwall, because they found there "one large great and high house," all that remained of the ancient Priory, well adapted to the purpose. By an indenture, dated 12th June, 1557, "Gilbert Thacker, in consideration of £37 10s., bargained and sold to Richard Harpur, serjeant-at-law, John Harker, and Simon Starkey, three of the executors, one large great and high house, near the kitchen of the same Gilbert Thacker, in Repton, commonly called the Feringre, with the ground and soil whereon the same was erected and builded, with the court or void-room adjoining to and upon the end of the said house, and between the said house and the said kitchen, upon which the school-master's lodgings were then newly erected, together with all the rooms, both above and beneath, of the same long house, and also all the paths and ways coming or leading to the same or any of them. The said Gilbert, also, for the consideration aforesaid, bargained and sold to the said Richard, John, and Simon, one large void-room or parcel of ground upon the east part, adjoining to the side of the said great long house, which void-room and parcel of ground lately was called the Cloyster, and one other room thereto adjoining, lately called the Fratriye, as the same were then inclosed with a new wall; to the intent that the same should be a schoolhouse, and so used from time to time thereafter."

Thus was Repton School founded by Sir John Port in the year 1557. As we have seen, Sir William Perryn, Bachelor of Divinity, was the first schoolmaster nominated by Sir John in his will.

The management of the School continued for a time under the direction of Sir John's executors, but gradually it fell into the hands of the Harpur family. In the year 1621 an agreement was made, by Sir John Harpur on the one part, and the Earl of Huntingdon, Lord Stanhope, and Sir Thomas Gerard, Bart., on the other, the three several descendants of Sir John Porte's three daughters, by which the management, after the death of Sir John Harpur, was conveyed to the rightful heirs of the founder.

In 1622, by petition of the coheirs, James I. granted, by Royal Letters Patent, a Charter of Incorporation by the style and title of "the Master of Etwall Hospital, School Master of Repton, Ushers, Poor Men, and Poor Scholars." The coheirs "of their friendliness and good will to the said Sir John Harpur, son of Richard, their Kinsman," petitioned that he should have the election and appointment of three of the twelve poor men, and one of the four poor scholars ordained by the Charter, so the Harpurs (Harpur-Crewes since 1808) were appointed, and have been numbered among the hereditary Governors from that time.

In 1865, F. O. Martin, Esq., Inspector of Charities, made a report to the Charity Commissioners "in the matter of Sir John Port's Hospital in Etwall and School in Repton," which report was ordered by the House of Commons to be printed on the 13th May, 1867. Founded on the report, a draft scheme for the management was published in January, 1873, by the Endowed Schools Commission. From that date all lands, etc., have been vested in the Charity Commissioners' official trustee.

A new Governing Body was appointed, consisting of an ex-officio Governor (the Lord-Lieutenant of the County of Derby for the time being), four hereditary Governors, five nominated Governors, one nominated by the members of Parliament for the various divisions of the county of Derby, one by the magistrates for the county of Derby in Quarter Sessions, one by the Hebdomadal Council of the University of Oxford, one by the Council of the Senate of the University of Cambridge, one by the Head Master and Assistant Masters of Repton School, and five co-optative Governors.

	 These eleven appeared as witnesses in a Chancery suit tried at Derby on the 15th of April, 16 C. II. (1676). The case is known as "The Master, etc., v. Gilbert Thacker and Others," a dispute had arisen, as to the right of the boys to play on the ground in front of the Priory, their only playground. Their evidence proved that at that early period (the age of the eldest would bring his school-days to within 40 years from the date of Sir John Port's Foundation, A.D. 1557) the School was in very high repute, &amp;c. At time of suit mentioned below.
